

Architect

Rajiv Parekh & Ekta Parekh

Firm

reD Architects

Inspiration

This organic shaped form appears to emerge from the ground in a fluid form, taking shape into a more static structure, achieved by the weaving of the raw elements that are used to make it. The totem stands tall to symbolize a union of independent element to form a stronger collective, casting light and shelter on everything it overpowers - a true dichotomy of its form and function.

Manufactured by VENZO

Architect
Rajiv Parekh & Ekta Parekh

Firm
reD Architects

Dimensions (mm)
L 1695 | W 2679 | H 4161

Venzo Veneer Collection
HAZEL

Cost
INR 3,94,875/-
PLUS GST