Inspiration:

The bar stool "FUOCO" embraces a distinctive and alluring fusion of old-world charm and modern elegance. It offers a touch of luxury and timeless beauty to any interior area with its elaborate details, curved forms, and high-end materials.

While maintaining the Rococo aesthetic, "FUOCO" combines the intricate details of the centre stool leg with the straight lines and simplicity of modern stool legs on its two sides. This work of art draws influence from the lively and historical motifs of the Rococo period focusing on comfort and usability to make the furniture both aesthetically pleasing and useful for daily usage.
